

Name:

WritingWorkbooks.com

The Great Plague of London

D'Nealian Cursive

1. King Charles II was the King of England.
2. In 1665, death came to the city of London.
3. It was called the Black Death.
4. The plague was carried by fleas on rats.
5. The plague first started in Holland.
6. England stopped trading with Holland.
7. The plague came during a very hot summer.
8. There were a thousand deaths a week in the city.
9. You needed a certificate of health to leave London.
10. The plague ended in the Great Fire of London.

King Charles II was
the King of England.

King Charles II was
the King of England.

In 1665, death came to the city of London.

In 1665, death came to the city of London.

It was called the Black Death.

It was called the Black Death.

It was called the Black Death.

The plague was carried
by fleas on rats.

The plague was carried
by fleas on rats.

The plague first started in Holland.

The plague first started in Holland.

The plague first started in Holland.

England stopped trading with Holland.

England stopped trading with Holland.

England stopped trading with Holland.

The plague came during
a very hot summer.

The plague came during
a very hot summer.

There were a thousand
deaths a week in the city.

There were a thousand
deaths a week in the city.

You needed a certificate
of health to leave London.

You needed a certificate
of health to leave London.

The plague ended in the Great Fire of London.

The plague ended in the Great Fire of London.

